Christ Jesus, On Sunday, You Rode Into Town ST. DENIO 11.11.11.11 ("Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise")

Christ Jesus, on Sunday, You rode into town; The crowds laid their coats and some palms on the ground. They made You a welcome and called You their king, But they did not know of the reign You would bring.

Christ Jesus, on Monday, You went up to pray; The sellers were filling the Temple that day. But who could be reverent? That courtyard was loud; You overturned tables, dispersing the crowd.

Christ Jesus, on Thursday, You readied a place; You hosted a meal and You offered the grace. You told Your disciples, "Now eat of this bread," "Now drink of the cup of salvation," You said.

With basin and towel, with washing of feet, You showed us where love and humility meet. You loved till Your love led to suffering and loss; You knelt down to serve us, then hung on a cross.

On Friday, You died, and the next day was bleak. O Christ, we remember Your whole Holy Week. We can't avoid suffering, or turn from what's true, For out of Your death, we find new life in You.

Father, Forgive Them ADELAIDE 5.4.5.4 D ("Have Thine Own Way, Lord")

"Father, forgive them!" Jesus, You prayed; Even at death, Your love was profound. You were rejected, You were betrayed — Yet in Your Word here, mercies abound.

You prayed a Psalm that everyone knew: "Why have You left me here all alone?" Did You recall that Psalm's ending, too? — God will deliver! Let it be known!

You cried, "I'm thirsty!" suffering Lord. Who would give comfort? What would they do? Teach us again: When we serve the poor, We, too, are giving water to You.

"It is completed!" All was fulfilled. You had been faithful, living God's way. You knew the truth: Love could not be killed; There would be triumph on the third day.

"Father!" You cried out, praying to God,
"Into Your hands My spirit I give."
Then on the cross, as love's final Word,
You died so all God's children might live.
